In the heart of Luxembourg, on the prestigious Plateau Bourbon, in a charming, quiet street close to all amenities, your Unicorn real estate agency offers this superb, atypical, contemporary town house for sale.

With a living area of around 160m<sup>2</sup> (plus a vast basement), this unusual property is a perfect blend of styles. Old-world charm and modernity coexist in perfect harmony.

As soon as you walk through the door, you'll be seduced by the quality materials, particularly the solid oak staircase. A jewel of character.

Built in the early 1920s, this house boasts 3.30m high ceilings, period moldings and authentic parquet flooring, all of which blend perfectly with the modernity that has taken over the premises. Animal wallpapers add an original touch.

Entirely renovated with great taste, the house's sophisticated layout and spaces will win you over. A terrace and small garden will be particularly appreciated for enjoying the gentle summer breeze.

To the left of the entrance to the house, you'll find a beautiful open-plan living area. The open-plan kitchen is fully equipped.

The second floor features a contemporary bathroom with walk-in shower, bath, toilet and 2 large bedrooms, one of which can be used as a dressing room.

The second floor comprises 2 bedrooms and a spacious modern bathroom.

No parking is included with this house, but buying or renting is possible 2 steps away. Free parking is available in front of the house, thanks to the municipality's parking sticker.
